1. INTRODUCTION

The West Group of Companies (The West Group Limited, Southbourne Rubber Company Limited and AEP Compressed Air Technologies Limited (hereafter, "we" "our" "us")) act as a "controller" in relation to personal data. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. This candidate privacy policy is available to all individuals who apply for work with us (whether as an employee, worker or contractor). It makes you aware of how and why your personal data will be used, namely for the purposes of the recruitment exercise, and how long it will usually be retained for. It provides you with certain information that must be provided under the both the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

2. DATA PROTECTION OFFICER AND EXPRESSING YOUR RIGHTS.

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with this privacy policy. If you have any questions about this privacy policy or how we handle your personal information, please contact the DPO at DPO@westgroup.co.uk. You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) who is responsible for data protection issues in the UK. For further information on the ICO, see their website at: <https://ico.org.uk/>. We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please do contact us in the first instance.

3. DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES.

We will comply with data protection law and principles, which means that your data will be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.

- Kept securely.

4. THE KIND OF INFORMATION WE HOLD ABOUT YOU.

In connection with your application for work with us, we will collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you:

- The information you have provided to us in your curriculum vitae and covering letter. This may include, but is not limited to: name, title, address, telephone number, personal email address, date of birth, gender, employment history.
- Any information you provide to us during an interview.

We may also collect, store and use the following types of more sensitive personal information:

- Information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records.

5. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED?

We collect personal information about candidates from the following sources:

- You, the candidate.
- Any recruitment partners, from which we may collect the following categories of data: CV, right to work in the UK, references, contact details.
- Your named referees, from whom we collect confirmation of employment dates. In certain circumstances character references may be requested.
- Data from other third parties or from a publicly accessible source: LinkedIn, internet searches. On some occasions third party job boards are used for candidate searches.

6. HOW WE WILL USE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU.

We will use the personal information we collect about you to:

- Assess your skills, qualifications, and suitability for the role.
- Communicate with you about the recruitment process.
- Keep records related to our hiring processes.
- Comply with legal or regulatory requirements.

Having received your CV and covering letter, we will then process that information to decide whether you meet the basic requirements to be shortlisted for the role. If you do, we will decide whether your application is strong enough to invite you for an interview. If we decide to call you for an interview, we will use the information you provide to us at the interview to decide whether to offer you the role. If we decide to offer you the role, we may contact anyone you propose as a reference before confirming your appointment.

It is in our legitimate interests to use this data in order to decide whether to appoint you to role since it would be beneficial to our business to appoint someone to that role. If we would like to appoint you to the role, we will also need to process your personal information to decide whether to enter a contract of employment with you.

7. IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE PERSONAL INFORMATION.

If you fail to provide information when requested, which is necessary for us to consider your application (such as evidence of qualifications or work history), we will not be able to process your application successfully.

8. HOW WE USE PARTICULARLY SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION.

We will use your particularly sensitive personal information in the following ways, we will use information about your disability status to consider whether we need to provide appropriate adjustments during the recruitment process, for example whether adjustments need to be made during an interview or if you are offered a role with us.

9. INFORMATION ABOUT CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

We do not envisage that we will process information about criminal convictions.

10. AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making.

11. WHY MIGHT YOU SHARE MY PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH THIRD PARTIES?

We will only share your personal information with third parties for the purposes of processing your application. All our third-party service providers and other entities in the group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

12. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need-to-know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions, and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. Details of these measures may be obtained from the DPO.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

CANDIDATE PRIVACY NOTICE

13. HOW LONG WILL YOU USE MY INFORMATION FOR?

If you are unsuccessful, we will retain your personal information for a period of 6 (six) months after we have communicated to you our decision about whether to appoint you to role. We retain your personal information for that period so that we can show, in the event of a legal claim, that we have not discriminated against candidates on prohibited grounds and that we have conducted the recruitment exercise in a fair and transparent way. After this period, we will securely destroy your personal information in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations.

If we wish to retain your personal information on file, on the basis that a further opportunity may arise in future and we may wish to consider you for that, we will write to you separately, seeking your explicit consent to retain your personal information for a fixed period on that basis.

14. YOUR RIGHTS IN CONNECTION WITH PERSONAL INFORMATION

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the DPO in writing.
